I apologize to the voters of the 3rd District. I made a mistake. I accept full responsibility for my actions. And I promise not to let it happen again.

It all started because I had to take a leak; and the next time I'm walking door-to-door and I have to take a leak, I promise not to do it in my truck, but to find a bathroom instead.

I harbor no hard feelings towards the police or the city attorney, who were doing their job, or towards the women who complained, who care about our neighborhoods, or towards the press, who have been working to inform the public.

I only hope that this one unfortunate lapse of judgment on my part does not overshadow the 25 years of genuine, hard work I have done to improve our neighborhoods. In the past, working together, we accomplished a great many things, including putting more cops on the streets, establishing community planning groups in every neighborhood, and winning District Elections.

We need to be talking about much more serious problems, like the need to put more police on the streets and how to fix the city's budget mess, than my failure to find a bathroom.

I have been running for City Council for the past year – knocking on doors as many of you know. I would like to continue to serve our neighborhoods.

But, if you as a voter do not believe I should represent you on the City Council, I will accept your judgment. But, if you can look past this mistake, I promise to fight as hard as I always have to put our neighborhoods first. Thus, I put my fate in your hands.

We support John Hartly

Gilda Mulette, North Park

"Other candidates run for their ego. John Hartley runs to fix our potholes and make our streets safer. John puts the community's needs ahead of his own. That's a candidate I can vote for."

Corlee Morris, North Park

"I greatly admire John Hartley. He always stands up for the little guy and does what's right. I use him as a personal reference all the time."

Barbara Blakeley, Talmadge

"I know John Hartley to be a fine, upstanding man who is concerned with the well being of his neighbors, co-workers and loved ones."

Nancy Moore, Hillcrest

"I'm 100% for John Hartley. I've never seen a politician do what they're supposed to do -- except John. Every time I see him, he's doing exactly what needs to be done for our neighborhoods."

Irene Ferguson, South Park

"I've known John for many years. He has a tremendous commitment to work in the community -- and 25 years of experience. John is by far the best candidate."

April Fleck (and Pepper), Normal Heights

"John is a very good man. He's fights to better our neighborhoods -- for more cops, for libraries, parks and young people. He's done a great many things for our community."

Mel Shapiro, Hillcrest

"I've known John for 20 years. John is in a minority group; the group of honest politicians."

"I only hope that this one unfortunate lapse of judgment on my part doesn't overshadow the 25 years of genuine, hard work I've done to improve our neighborhoods." – John Hartley
